About IMS

Industrial Metal Supply was founded as a scrap and surplus business back in 1948 in Burbank, CA. Norman and Sally Sherman delivered metal out of the back end of their 1947 Pontiac station wagon that served as their pick-up truck by day and the family vehicle in the evening. Today IMS, which is still family-owned, has grown to five locations, over 260 employees, 40 trucks & more than 400,000 square feet of warehouse space in California and Arizona.

Company employees pride themselves on their commitment and ability to be flexible in order to meet our customer's needs. Whether it's information or special material handling, our employees go out of their way to service our customer's requests.
